WPMB 845 of 2002

Hon'ble P.C. Verma, A.C.J.

Hon. Irshad Hussain, J.

Heard Sri R. P. Nautiyal, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri R.Dobhal and Sri B. D. Kandpal, learned counsel for the respondents.

Since the petitioner could not qualify the preliminary examination, he can not claim on the reserved posts to be filled up from amongst the handicapped category and for this reason he can not challenge that there was no advertisement reserving the posts for handicapped persons. After main examination, even the interviews are over and final result is only now remains to be declared.

In the facts and circumstances of the case, the petition has been rendered infructuous. However, it is made clear that if any vacancy under the reserved category is left, that shall be carried forward in the next selection.

The petition is disposed of accordingly.
